7th Day Interpreters' Conference

This past July was the 7th Day Interpreters' Conference held at Milo Adventist Academy with Western Deaf Camp Meeting. The time together was so valuable as we discussed issues with Deaf Ministry led by Esther Doss.

The Monday evening was spent sitting in a circle for several hours and having a candid conversation on what was successful in Deaf Ministry in various churches and what were the struggles. We were blessed with deaf participation that helped to guide our conversation. All left the conversation having felt richly blessed by sharing.

On Tuesday the interpreter group, joined with our deaf friends, went rafting on the Rogue River. Water wars, Pirate threats and lots of laughter were experienced by all during the few hour trip to our pull out spot. It was a great bonding experience!

Southern Deaf Camp Meeting

Southern Deaf Camp Meeting took place at beautiful Cohutta Springs Convention Center in north Georgia August 10 – 14, 2016.

The theme was “God’s Remnant Church” with Pastor Paul Kelly (Rochester, NY) as the main speaker.

In addition to identifying the true remnant church as revealed in the Books of Daniel and Revelation, Pastor Kelly also guided us to identify the true prophet for the last days: Ellen G. White.

We were also blessed to have Dr. Philip Samaan, professor of theology at Southern Adventist University, to do a short series on Ellen G. White and Christ’s way of praying.

Amazing series! Dr. Samaan wrote a book called, “Christ’s Way to Pray” and you can buy it at the ABC.

A total of 110 people and children, including a group from the Caribbean island of Barbados, came and we all were spiritually uplifted and had fun. Fortunately, for those who couldn’t come to camp meeting, many were able to log into the SDF website and watched the sermon series LIVE. The sermon videos will be posted on the website some time this month. Please keep checking.

Friday evening was the communion service and testimony time. After worship on Sabbath afternoon, two Deaf people were baptized in the lake! To God be praised!

Pontoon boat rides, swimming, and hiking were a few of the favorite activities by many. Camp meeting would not be successful without Jesus Christ and all of His volunteers. Thank you!

We are already looking forward to next year’s camp meeting, which is August 9 – 13, 2017. Please start making plans to attend.

From the Editor

Our world is constantly changing. America now has a new president, wars still ravage on in other countries, earthquakes in various parts of the world, and issues that we are dealing with in the Adventist Church.

Friends, as we look and see all the changes around us, let us not forget that God never changes. Hebrews 13:8 says, “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever.” Praise God for that promise!

Let us keep our eyes firmly placed on our loving Father in Heaven and keep our trust in Him.

Our next issue will include an article about the importance of memorizing our Bibles. Hope you enjoy this issue of The Interpreter Connection!

The majority of the week was focused on workshops and how to improve our interpreting. Darrel Strait focused on several issues in interpreting including an evaluation form that Riverside Community College in California uses to evaluate their interpreters. Nohe Jarnes worked with the Advanced Interpreting group and worked on how to improve interpreting. Margie English worked on letting go of our English grammatical structure and focus on American Sign Language structure in our interpreting. Lorna Strait held a class on improving basic vocabulary in sign and also religious signs.

Overall the week was fantastic and I look forward to our next conference in two years!

Mark your calendars! In two years, 2018, we will be holding the conference at Cohutta Springs with Souther Deaf Camp Meeting. Hope to see you all there!
